

Sex Trafficking is the fastest growing crime in the United States. With the rise of trafficking the need for safe shelter and healing is also on the rise. It is our hope that you will come along side us in providing backpacks for these girls as they get rescued off the streets and have the opportunity to have a second chance.

Event Date:

WHAT: Human Trafficking Backpack Collection Day & Awareness Event

WHEN: December 15 {Saturday} 10 am to 4 pm

WHERE: Second Impressions Store - 24412 Muirlands Blvd - Suite # f,h,i, Lake Forest, CA 92630

WHAT: Drop off Your Backpack or Human Trafficking Closet Supplies, Volunteer Opportunities, Women's Clothing Drive, Refreshments & Great Sales! Bring a Friend!

Rescue Backpacks for Trafficked Females

Backpacks will be given to females (18 to 29) just rescued from trafficking or to girls (12 to 17) in foster or group homes who have been trafficked or at risk. Keep in mind when the girls are rescued they will have absolutely nothing. This will be the first thing they receive on their new journey to healing and restoration. Please pack donated backpack with care and love. The backpack and contents should be feminine and girl like.

Below are the NEW items needed for each backpack - make sure all clothing items are the same size:

- Medium size teddy bear or dog
- PJs (leggings with t-shirt or sweats is fine) medium to large is best
- Underwear & Socks & Sports Bra
- Shampoo & Conditioner
- Toothbrush & Toothpaste
- Hairbrush & Hair ties
- Loofah
- Deodorant
- Journal or Notebook
- Bible (smaller-NLT is a good translation- If you are unable to get a bible we will have extras)
- Encouraging letter (We will have a table where you can do this, if you choose to.)
